THREE BOYS

Hailing From Covington, Ky., Taken From a Freight Train in This City About Noon Yesterday.

Yesterday about 12:30 o'clock Special Agent Thomas Stewart took from Extra 916 on the C. & O. Railway, three boys who said they had come from Silver Grove on the train.

About noon Mr. Stewart received a message from Dover that the agent at that place had seen the boys and requested Mr. Stewart to get them as the train passed through this city. Mr. Stewart caught the train as it was passing the depot and asked the brakeman in the baggage to stop the train in order that he might take the boys into custody. This was done and Mr. Stewart captured the boys. They gave their names as Linal Gregory, 10 years old, Louis Sanders, 12 years, Loraine Bobbitt, 10 years, all coming from Covington.

The boys told a story that they had gone from their homes in Covington to Silver Grove on one of the commuter trains expecting to get a return train to their home in time to go to school. They said that while they were in Silver Grove the freight train stopped at DE NUZIE.

GRIM REAPER

Takes Mr. George W. Chambers From His Home on East Second Street Yesterday After a Short Illness With Pneumonia.

Mr. George W. Chambers died at his home on East Second street yesterday morning at 11:20 o'clock after a short illness. Mr. Chambers was taken sick last week, the sickness developing into pneumonia in a short time Monday morning. After a restless night he seemed to rally until about 10 o'clock, after which he sank rapidly and the end came at the hour named.

Mr. George Washington Chambers was born in the city of Maysville on February 17, 1843. He spent almost his entire life in this city. In 1861 he enlisted in the 16 Kentucky Infantry in Co. C under Captain Miller. He served throughout the war, but for nine months was a prisoner in Andersonville prison, where he suffered great privations. Following the war he returned to this city where he engaged in his trade as a pattern maker. Later he became a lock and gunsmith in 1884 he removed to Covington, Ky. where he spent ten years as a mechanic. After his return to this city he engaged in the lock and gunsmith trade, which he continued until his death. His shop on Second street below Sutton was a very familiar place to those desiring any fine repair work done and he enjoyed a very large business.

He was married on October 7, 1868, to Miss Margaret McClain, who survives him. To them seven children were born, two or which died in infancy and one after passing his 25 year. Four children survive, three sons, Charles H. and George W. Chambers of Cincinnati, and Harvey William of this city and one daughter, Mrs. Harry Crawford of this city. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Minnie Elizabeth Ellis of New York City.

Mr. Chambers was the commander of the Joseph Heiser Post G. A. R. in this city which disbanded on November 6. He was the first of the twelve remaining members to answer the call of the death angel. He was a member of the Christian Church and was a regular attendant. He was known all over the city for his kind nature and had a host of friends, all of whom are greatly grieved to hear of his death. His many years of usefulness will not soon be forgotten by the many who regarded themselves as his friends and all feel sure that his reward will be a crown of life.

The funeral will be held from the Christian Church on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. F. Stahl conducting the services. The burial will be made in the Maysville Cemetery.

NEGRO STEALS MONEY

Mr. W. A. Tolle, the East End grocer, was the victim of rather well planned trick yesterday. Albert Foster, a 20 year old negro, that has been working for him, taking about $12 of Mr. Tolle's money. The boy had been around taking orders from Mr. Tolle's various customers and upon his return told the gentleman that two ladies had told him that they would pay for groceries if he would bring back change for five and ten dollar bills. Mr. Tolle gave the boy the change and the boy left the store and after not returning for several hours Mr. Tolle began to investigate. The wagon was found abandoned on Sutton street. The authorities were immediately notified and they got into communication with officials at Silver Grove, Ky., asking them to be on the lookout for the boy.

FINE SON

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Goldsby Farrar of Fifth street a fine son on Saturday at 2 o'clock. The youngster weighed 7½ pounds at his birth and has been named John Keith. Mrs. Farrar was formerly Miss Jessie Wallingford of this city.

The Savranoff Company, which comes to Maysville, December 14th, on the Lyceum course, came over from Russia just about the time the war began in Europe. Just to show how glad they are to be in concert work in America instead of fighting in European trenches, they have arranged to offer as one part of their program a song entitled, "I am Glad I am in the United States." Another novelty of their program will be Russian folk songs in the Russian language, their accomplishment being on the Russian instrument known as the balalaika.

GOOD ROADS

The Sunset Magazine publishes an article on California roads, in which occurs the following:

"California and her sister states in the West have ample proof of the need of permanent highways. In four years the traffic in California has doubled, and in another four years it will double again. The pleasure car, the commercial auto truck and the interurban 'jitney' are the instruments which have taught the public that the principle of making a road earn its own cost by increasing its efficiency to the community is a very simple problem in finance. Direct and feasible routing of permanent roadways shortens the distance between the farmer and his markets and allows him a choice of markets, instead of being dependent on one market. They enlarge the town dealer's trading and delivering radius. They expedite postal deliveries and promote social or commercial intercourse between communities dormant in 'mud road' weather. The concrete roadways of California have made possible the establishment of jitney service on routes 200 and 300 miles in length, and have quickened the easy movement of heavy merchandise from the railroad station to otherwise almost inaccessible communities. Whoever thought of hauling twelve-ton loads for distances of ninety to one hundred miles over the highways of ten years ago. The commercial truck and the permanent highways are the instruments which now make this economically possible—and cut into the earnings of the steam and electric roads."

The railroads have been great advances of civilization, as well as great contributors to the comfort and happiness of the generations that have known them. They have expanded tremendously the earning capacity of the civilized world and increased the standard of living. Cutting into the profits of steam and electric railroads viewed otherwise than as a means of regulating freight rates, hardly could be considered good fortune. But the public roads are destined to become greater competitors of the railroads; greater reducers of freight rates, than the interior waterways ever have been, or can be, if the fuel problem does not stand in the way of the broadest development of the internal combustion engine as motive vehicles than now are in use, and with the increase of the mileage of good roads there will be, unfailingly great expansion of the market for automobiles for freight and passenger service. But if gasoline should not be supplanted, or supplemented, as fuel, and if the control of the market for gasoline should remain where it now seems to be, the production of motor vehicles might one day be halted for want of fuel at prices cheap enough to make the motor truck practical.

The simple problem in finance will be more simple when we find how we can operate engines at a profit when there are twice as many as there are now. Assuming the solution of the fuel problem, permanent roads should pay better returns in 2020 than they will be paying in 1920.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several ears," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of her place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

FRENCH WAR EXPENDITURE IS 72,000,000,000 FRANCS; ENGLAND'S 90,000,000,000

Paris, December 10.—Raoul Peret, formerly Minister of Commerce, discussing in the Chamber of Deputies last evening in behalf of the appropriation committee, the budget for the first three months of 1917, pointed out that France will have incurred expenditures to the amount of 72,000,000,000 francs between the opening of hostilities and the end of March next, while Great Britain in the same period will have had an outlay of 90,000,000,000 francs.

This statement drew exclamations from the deputies that "Great Britain is thus proved to have collaborated cordially and completely."

The resources of Mr. Peret put against the expenditures made an authorized amount approximately of 64,000,000 francs, as follows:

Ten billion two hundred million tax receipts, 38,700,000,000 short and long term bonds of France, 5,600,000,000 loans from England and the United States, 9,000,000,000 advanced by the Bank of France, 200,000,000 advanced by the Bank of Algeria. This leaves an apparent deficit of 8,000,000,000 francs. Mr. Peret said this does not represent the actual expenditures, but the authorized outlay and that of the

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

ANNUAL REPORT

If the Mason County Health League
As Submitted to the Board of Directors of That Organization.

The following is the report of Miss Anne M. Casey to the Board of Directors of the Mason County Health League:

TO THE Honorable Board of Directors, Members and Friends:

It is with pleasure that again I am privileged to present the Annual Report of the work of the League. The third year has been thronged with opportunities to advance the cause of health, and while it has been a struggle to keep a worker in the field, much has been accomplished. More might have been done had the Autonobile Fund grown to necessary proportions for the purchase.

An Educational Campaign was carried on during the month of December. An exhibit was placed in the Council Chamber where all could see and read the causes of much disease and pointed the way to Health and Happiness by avoiding the rocks of filth, dissipation and neglect and embracing pure air, sunshine and proper living.

In March an open Baby Clinic was held and many parents availed themselves of the opportunity for their children. Health talks to mothers were given in various places, the colored population sharing the benefits of the campaign. A Trachoma Clinic was held at the Hospital with Dr. McMullen, United States Surgeon, Public Health Service and Mrs. May Hicks in attendance. Our local staff of physicians devoted every effort to give the best service to those of our community who needed the attention. Thirty-three presented themselves for examination, two were operated on, the others instructed and prescribed for.

The County and City Boards of Education have worked in hearty co-operation. Nearly 300 school children received medical inspection in the schools of Maysville, Orangeburg, Parry, Dover, Wedonia and Sardis. On October 1, 1916, the management of the Hospital was turned over to the League and much has been done for the poor in the county and city. In sickness, a special report of the Hospital is forth-coming. A tent was erected on the Chautauqua grounds and equipped with facilities for caring for emergencies.

A ladies auxiliary to the League was organized, with a membership of 24, object to work for the League in whatever capacity needed.

Much sewing has been done for the Hospital, and a Lawn Fete was given on the Hospital grounds, which was a success in every sense of the word. The Settlement Club furnished funds to paint the Children's Ward and a bed is to be furnished by them.

The following is a report of the actual field work viz:

When the League assumed the responsibility of managing Hayswood Hospital which necessitated another nurse for visiting the sick in their homes, as yet it has been impossible to fill the vacancy, as the work requires certain elements in the character of the one employed, that all do not possess. It might be more easily done if the automobile was a reality instead of a probability. Tuberculosis week was devoted to displays for the instruction of the public, entertainment of various kinds were given and every effort was put forth to rouse the public from its lethargy, and the citizens to the point of rallying to the support of the Health League.

It is nothing for the nurse to be called up in the night to answer a call on a sick wife, or child with this statement, "Can't get a Doctor." Why? Not because the doctor is unwilling to relieve suffering whenever he can, but because the people are so good for nothing and call so many times for trifles, which we all bear and recover from without any assistance. Always promising to pay, but having no intention of ever doing so. And then the filth and slovenliness of these poor creatures. How much might be done to teach them better, if time, money, brains and energy were put into the problem, to solve it. One person can't do it, neither can two, but with the cooperation of every citizen and the backing of the rulers of the town and county, much could be accomplished toward better health, better houses, better children.

On October 1, 1916, the Training School was extinct as there were no nurses in training. I sent out 50 application blanks, visited several homes in the county and only received a very few applications in return.

6 probationers were accepted.

3 remaining.

It would be much easier could our force of nurses be increased. We are prepared to give a thorough course of training in Theory and Practice to young women of good moral character, 18 to 35 years of age, pay them an allowance during their term of service and provide room, board and laundry.

Our school is affiliated with a large Hospital in which they receive one year's experience in branches that we cannot give here and upon graduation they are eligible to State Registration.

There has been some sickness among the pupils, but not serious; and I wish to thank the physicians for their kindness in giving them every attention, and also to thank them for their readiness to serve our Charity cases, who received just as careful attention as though they were paid the regular fee. I want to thank the Health League Board, and the Trustees of the Hospital for their hearty co-operation and while many times things looked very discouraging, there was always a comfort in going to the officers for strength and encouragement.

I wish also, to thank the nurses who have worked so unwaveringly when the work was heavy, and it meant long hours and little rest, and no extra pay.

CHURCH AT THIRD STREET M. E. CHURCH

Great preparations are being made for Christmas at this church. The Sunday School will celebrate on Friday evening, December 22nd, with an entertainment somewhat different from any heretofore held. There are twelve classes in the school and each class is to furnish at least one number on the program not to exceed five minutes in length, and the nature of the selection is not to be made known until the time of the entertainment. Santa Claus has sent word that he will be on hand promptly to enjoy the entertainment and to do a little "atunt" of his own for the benefit of the school. The Sunday School will make a "Christmas thank offering" to the Preacher's Relief Society. The public will be invited to this as well as all Christmas services in this church.

The choir of the Third Street M. E. Church is making splendid progress on the Christmas Cantata "The Light Eternal," which they will sing on Christmas Eve, Sunday, December 24. This will take the place of the usual evening service and will last just a little over one hour. The chorus consists of eighteen voices, accompanied by piano, cornets and trombone. This cantata is said to be the prettiest yet given by this choir. Every member of the fourteen in the cantata is a gem and is sure to be appreciated by those who attend. A full program will appear next week.

The Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. Church had another record-breaking meeting Sunday night. With an attendance of about 125 to see the aeroplane go up there was certainly plenty of enthusiasm to start with. After an interesting program was gone through with the aeroplane was brought forth and started on its flight. The object was to boost the subscription list of the Epworth Herald, the League's official paper. In less than ten minutes the aeroplane had gone past the limit and over twenty-five subscribers were entered for the herald. This is an unusual record for one Epworth League and goes to show that this bunch of young people have the spirit of enthusiasm that brings things to pass.

GOOD MARKET

At the Opening Day of the Second Week of the Maysville Tobacco Market Was Shown Yesterday—114,555 Pounds Sold.

The opening day of the second week of the Maysville Tobacco Market yesterday showed a great deal of the weed on the market at prices ranging from $8 to $25 per hundred. The quality of the offerings was somewhat improved over that of last week and the warehousemen are expecting quite a change in the quality of the tobacco throughout the entire week. A total of 114,555 pounds was sold on the floors of the various houses during the day, the sales starting from the People's house at the corner of Bank and East Second streets. The following are the sales for the day:

TAKEN TO PENITENTIARY

One of the guards from the state penitentiary at Frankfort was in this city yesterday and took John Jones back to that institution with him. Jones, it will be remembered, escaped from a convict camp near Pineville the early part of last week and came to this city to visit his family. Later he surrendered to Mr. James B. Wood. It is understood that the authorities are disposed to be rather lenient with Jones as he was regarded as one of the model prisoners, he taking "French leave" only from the desire to see his family.

THIRD SNOW OF SEASON

The third snow of the season lay on the ground this morning when the lumbering Maysvilleans awoke. This was the larger fall of the season. The weather forecast of 10 degrees above zero did not materialize although the thermometer came pretty close to that point. A sheet fell before the snow making an icy coating on the sidewalks, causing the walking to be somewhat hazardous.

FLOUR SELLING RAPIDLY

The sale of flour by J. C. Everett & Co. at $8 per barrel attracted a large number of people to their new quarters on East Second street yesterday. The sale will continue until the last of the 200 barrels has been sold which will probably be by noon today, judging by the way they went yesterday.

MANY SEE PICTURE

Large crowds were present at the Pastime last night to see the picture, "The Prince of Graustark." This picture is a dramatization of a book of the same name and is regarded as one of the best of the novels of the late year. The picture was excellent and followed almost exactly the book.

PURCHASES PROPERTY

Dr. J. A. Simpson, the oculist, has purchased the Diener property at the corner of Fifth and Limestone streets and will move from his present home on Forest avenue within a few weeks. The property purchased is a very desirable location.

ANOTHER WEDDING

Another Christmas wedding is being reported in this city, the parties both living in the East End of the city. Cupid has been rather busy this fall and as a result there will be several marriages of prominent young people around the holidays.
